Foreword:

The members of the Viking Staff are very glad to be able to present this- The 1959 Viking. Although many changes have been made this year, the annual still contains pictures of you, your classmates, your teachers and your sports stars.

Our main purpose in doing the book was to give you what you want. We believe we have done this.

An enthusiastic Board inspires us

This has been a busy year for members of the Board of Education. In addition to routine duties, many other projects have been undertaken: beginning development of the playgrounds at the Marysville Gardens Elementary School, continuing of the expansion and development of the high school site, study and improvement of curricula, continuation of the revision and extension of the Code of Policies and Procedures for the school district, to name a few.

The increasing school population and enrollment presented some problems. The board invited a committee of citizens to study our school situation as a whole: school population, buildings and sites, organization and finance, and to make recommendations. These recommendations were studied by the Board and the general public was informed of the action needed.

Increasing duties and responsibilities in a growing school district are always a challenge to Board members who consider it a privilege to serve the school and community.

Norris A. Hanks
Superintendent of Schools

Mr. Whitehouse,

Faculty and Classes
. . . are the foundations

Who's working the hardest, the students or Miss Britten?

What's wrong, Mrs. Gorham, did you lose your voice?

All the world's a stage

Miss Kresin-"helping" English 12 students?

Mrs. Bellow was caught in one of her good moods.

Amo, amas, amat-love that Mrs. Sharritt.

Miss Vivian sleeps while her class works.

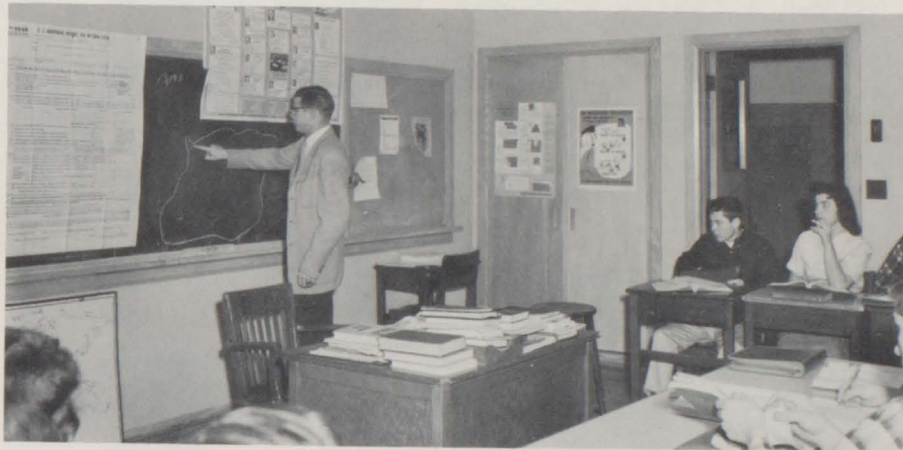

Mr. Martin says: "Tippecanoe and Tyler, too."
 "A chicken is every pot and two cars in every garage."
 "Two chicks in every car."

Mr. Spencer, what did happen in 1502?

..... "If war makes history, let's have peace."

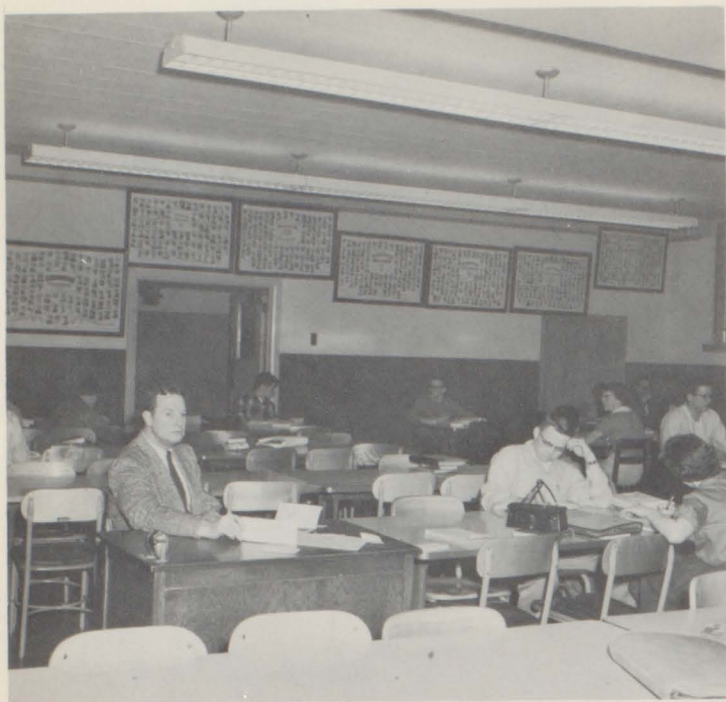

Don't point that, Mr. Whitehouse, it has a nail in it!

But in our opinion, Mr. Sims-----

"If you're in the front row, watch out for Mr. Lange's yardstick."

Mr. Misener, you're not paying attention!

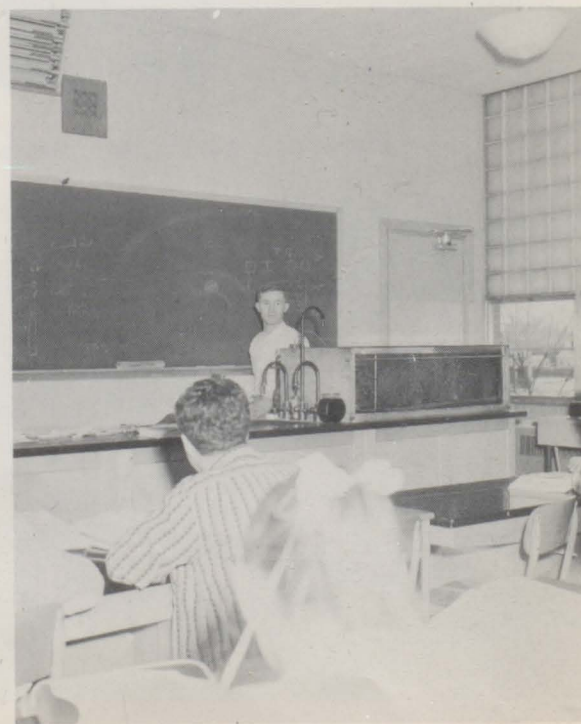

Yes, that's our Mr. Yon (yawn).

Science and math reign while

Mr. Stephens' lab is always fun, noisy, and sh-h-h (smelly).

We hate cut-ups in biology, Mr. Morris.

Miss Amoe, they should be working!

Mr. Collard, can you type that fast?

. commercial and the arts do the same.

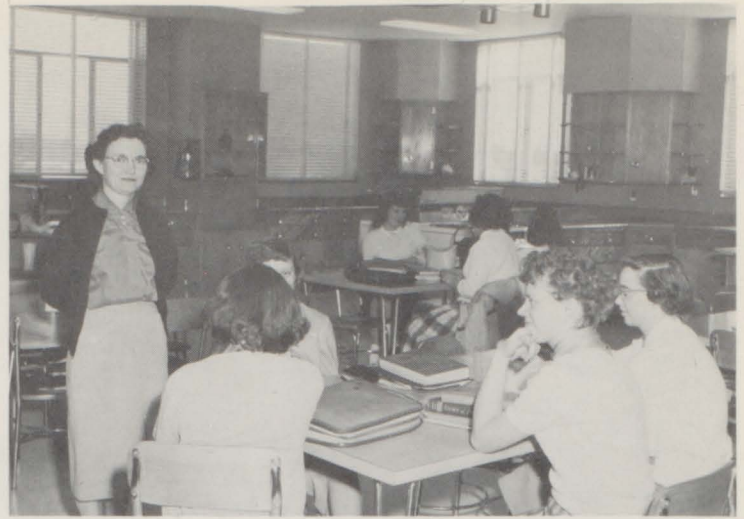

Everyone has a special task except Mr. Pake.

Mr. Salvo insists that you wake up and play right.

Mrs. McCall, your art class can be admired.

Mrs. Sullivan and Miss Mullen grace our homemaking department.

We make the food, we eat

Always wondered what teachers do at their meetings-

now we know-

nothing!

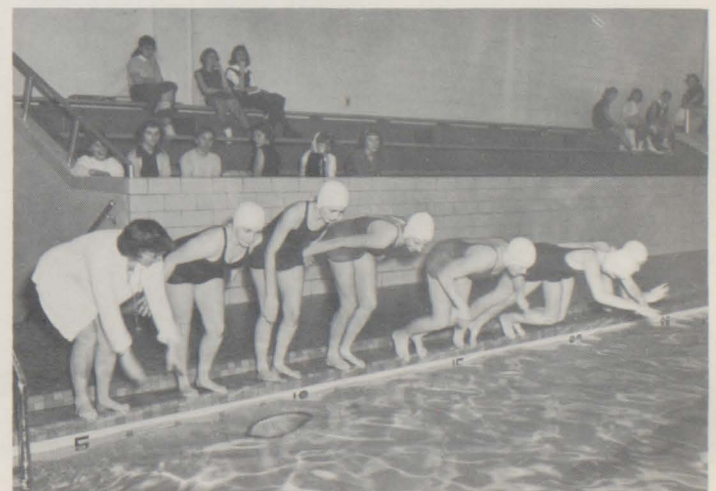

Coach Sullivan works harder than his class.

Miss Fitch is always needed-if only to hold the girls up!

Coach Parfitt must explain everything.

. and then we reduce.

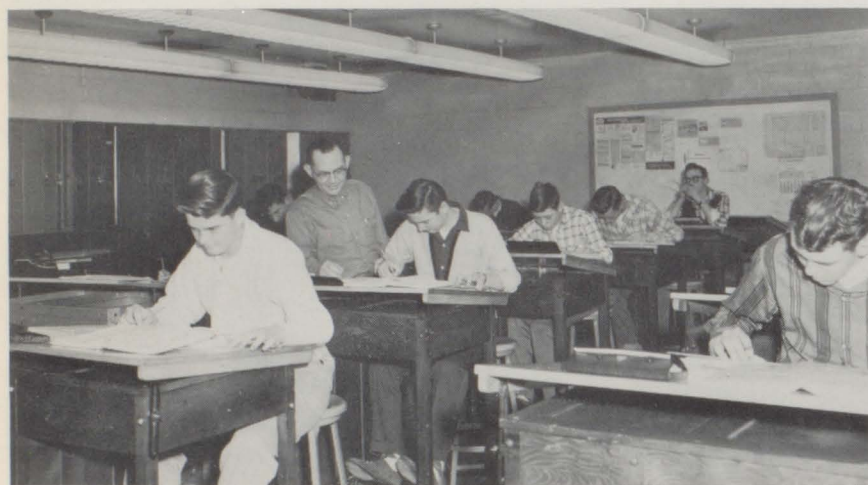

Miss Cornwell's class gets in the swim.

Mr. Rowland helps his students center an eccentric.

Mr. Pearson shows his class vertical lettering.

Mr. Burghdorf tells us how, shows us how, and gives us the credit!

Skyscrapers are their goal.

Mr. Hop comes to the rescue.

Mr. Philp is "co-op"-erating with his class.

How often one hears the words, "I will do it later". Few of us realize that "tomorrow" is always in the future, that "tomorrow" never arrives. When we have a task to do, even though it may not be to our liking, the time to do it is now. Putting off an assignment never lessens the amount of work and only makes the assignment seem even longer.

Some people go through life putting off things that could easily have been done in the present. They fail to realize that man's allotted time is measured and not an unlimited quantity.

How much better one feels when he knows that his work is finished and on time. What a favorable impression he makes on others. The "unsatisfactory" reports that cross the desk of the Principal or the employer could be cut in half if work assignments were only done on time.

Mr. Omer Bartow
Principal

We give credit

The 31 slave drivers at attention.

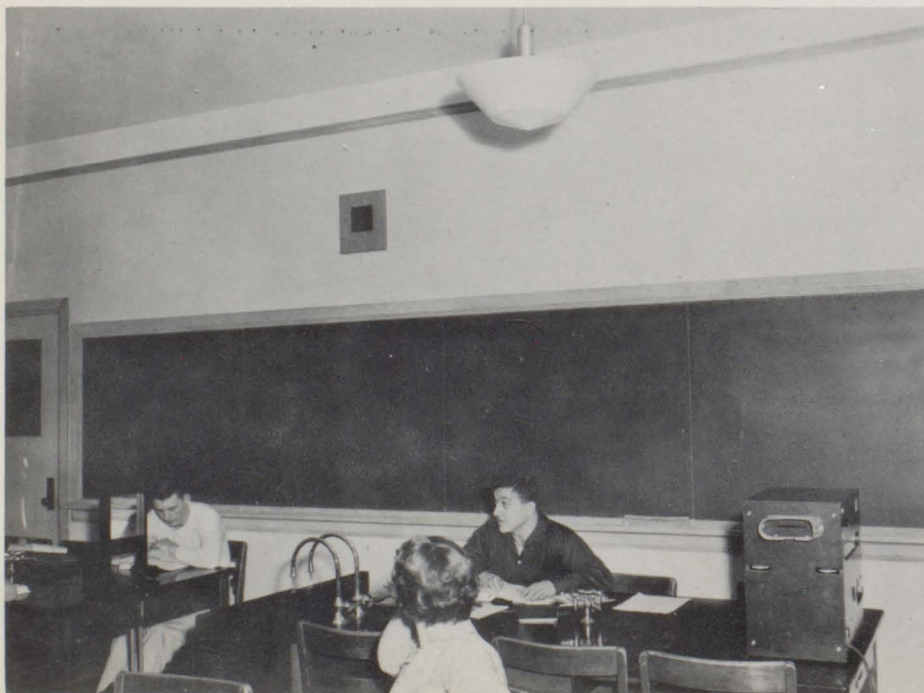

Mr. Misenar, helping one of 1959's seniors, is one of our counselors.

Miss Kresin, our other counselor, strives to help students in their school life and in choosing their vocation.

..... where credit is due

Drive, drive, driving goes Mr. Wheeler when he's not coach, coach, coaching.

A record number of boys participated in Cross Country this fall. Both the Varsity and Reserve Teams were undefeated in Dual Meet Competition. The Varsity team won ten consecutive dual meets. The team placed well in state competition, winning the Thurston Invitational; second in the Hastings Invitational; and fifth in the Albion College Invitational. Our Vikings highlighted the season by placing second in the State Regionals and third in the State Finals. Captain Dick Polovich was outstanding in every meet.

With juniors Dave Arnett, Bob Green, Bob Krupa, Lloyd Beery, Keith Johnson, Noel Mickle, Don Polovich, Charles Salvo, and sophomores Mike French, Arnold Koebke, and Red Thompson returning, the Vikings could be strong again next year.

Team Captain, Dick Polovich, and Coach Wheeler look over the trophies that have been won this year by the Cross Country team.
